MIRWAIS MOHAMADI

MOTION TO WITHDRAW

MIRWAIS MOHAMADI, by and through counsel, and at the request of his client, hereby moves to withdraw and permit Mr. Mohamadi to represent himself in this matter. Please consider the following:

1. During the last hearing on January 5, 2010, the Court informed permitted Mohamadi to stay at the Alexandria Detention Center while he consulted with counsel and visited with his family.
  2. On January 6, 2010, Mr. Mohamadi was placed in the Alexandria Detention Center.
  3. Following an incident with correctional officers there (Mr. Mohamadi will want to address this incident at the next hearing), counsel met extensively with Mr. Mohamadi on January 7, 2010.
  4. On the morning of January 8, 2010, counsel again met with Mohamadi and he had a visit with his uncle, mother, and sister in the presence of counsel. Issues were discussed regarding counsel's continued efforts to protect Mr. Mohamadi and represent him in this matter.
  5. Mr. Mohamadi requested to see counsel for a third time. Counsel made arrangements to again see Mohamadi. Counsel and Mohamadi then met on the afternoon of January 8, 2010 to see if counsel could continue in this case.

6. At the end of this meeting, Mohamadi made very clear that he wants to represent himself in this matter. He understood clearly the warnings and advice issued by this Court during the last hearing. He told counsel to stop working on any part of his case.

7. On this day, January 11, 2010, Mr. Mohamadi contacted counsel's office and directed him to immediately put this matter before the Court. He also indicated he is on a hunger strike that began when he was placed in Alexandria Jail.

8. Mr. Mohamadi, therefore, wishes to exercise his right to represent himself. Counsel also can no longer represent this individual despite his absolute best efforts.<sup>1</sup>
